Astigmatism or Irregular Vision is one of the most common of all the refractive errors. It is due to the irregular curvature of the eye known as the Cornea. Of course no instrument is sufficient to correct it, but in the hands of a thoroughly efficient and competent eye specialist the ophthalmometer reveals the exact condition of the eye in a way that nothing else can. If your eye needs attention have DR. J. T. JOHNSON to put them under this wonderful instrument. Office hours 8:30 to 12:30, 2 to 6. 302 S. Elm St.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU
HIGH POINT, N. C., June 24.
An important meeting was held at the Friends church last night.

Miss Donna Burns and little brother left yesterday for a visit of several days in Lexington.

We are requested to announce that "Captain Dick" will be presented in Lexington on Thursday and Friday of next week.

We learn that there will be no 4th of July celebration at Randleman as advertised, on account of the case of smallpox in town.

Rev. Lowdermilk, pastor M. P. church, will begin a series of meetings at his church the first of next week. Rev. Porter, of Asheboro, will assist him.

The Union Furniture factory, just completed, will be ready to begin work in earnest in a few days. All the machinery is in place and the working material is being secured right along.

Usual services at the Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian churches tomorrow by the pastors in charge. Rev. E. G. Lowdermilk will occupy the pulpit at the M. P. church in the morning.

The many friends of the contracting parties will read with interest the following: At the M. E. church at 8:30 o'clock on the evening of June 28th, you are especially asked to witness the marriage of Miss Leona Augusta Moon to Daniel T. Marable, High Point, N. C.

The Atlantic Symphony quartette played to a rather small but attentive audience last night at the opera house. The young men composing this organization are born artists and the music rendered by them was splendid. Every one present was delighted and spoke of the entertainment in the highest terms.

The committee from the Junior Order who has in charge the arrangements of exercises on univelling day, July 4th, has made out the program for the occasion and handed it to the printers and it is a good one from start to finish. The addresses of the day will be delivered by Hon. F. C. Robbins, who will speak on "Dedication of Monument," and Gen. Julian S. Carr, who has chosen for his subject the "Confederate Soldier and His Monument." If the weather permits no doubt High Point will be crowded on that day. Come along, we can take care of you all.

STATE PRESS CONVENTION.

At Carolina Beach Wednesday and Thursday July 12 and 13.

The next meeting of the North Carolina Press Association will be held at Carolina Beach Hotel July 12 and 13. A rate of one dollar a day has been secured at the hotel for the editors and members of their families accompanying them, and Capt. R. A. Jenkins, the clever proprietor, will do everything he can to make their stay pleasant. Capt. J. W. Harper, of the steamer line, has given the editors carte blanche on his line between Wilmington, Carolina Beach and Southport during their stay.

The coming meeting promises to be one of the most largely attended and interesting ever held by the association.

The members of the Sedgely Hall Club at Carolina Beach cordially invite the journalists to use their club house to hold their sessions in. They have a large, elegant house, and have telephone connection with Wilmington. The mail will be received and delivered twice a day at the club rooms.

The convention will meet Wednesday morning, July 12, at 10 o'clock, a. m., and remain in session two days. President Dowd has appointed the following essayists for the meeting: How Can I Increase the Circulation of My Paper?—J. B. Whitaker. Alternate—A. J. Maxwell.

A RABID DOG

Causes Excitement In West Greensboro.—Finally Killed.

The Second mad-dog of the season was killed at the stables of S. S. Brown yesterday afternoon. He was seen yesterday morning in the country several miles from town and was first seen in town at the residence of J. H. Rankin, on Ashe street, having run through the house into the back yard, from whence, after chasing a cat and some chickens, it ran back through the house.

A large party armed with pistols gave chase and the dog was killed after more than a dozen shots had been fired. It was a large, black hound, was foaming profusely at the mouth and had every symptom of rabies.

An Arm Broken.

Ben Pickard, son of T. M. Pickard, was the victim of a painful accident this morning, in front of his home on Cedar street. He was riding his wheel on the sidewalk, which is an elevation of several feet above the street, when the front wheel struck a rock and the rider fell into the street breaking his left arm between the wrist and elbow. He is about ten years old and it is hoped that his arm will soon heal.

"Captain Dick" In Lexington.

"Captain Dick," the beautiful military play which so pleased the citizens of Greensboro recently, will be presented at Lexington Thursday and Friday of next week. It is to be hoped that the good people of that live, wide-awake town will give "Captain Dick" the reception that he deserves. They will see an entertainment that is in every way worthy of their patronage.

CLARK PORTER BADLY HURT.

Jumps From Hook and Ladder Truck and Is Thrown Beneath It.

Clark Porter was most painfully injured in an unfortunate accident which occurred while the Hook and Ladder Company was practicing on Summit avenue last night.

Mr. Porter had recently joined the company and was out on his first practice for the coming tournament. When the horses were going at almost full speed and the men were jumping off preparatory to raising the ladder at the poles, Mr. Porter jumped, and not being in practice, failed to turn loose the truck, which was going at such speed that he was hurled to the ground beneath it.

One wheel of the heavy machine passed over both Mr. Porter's legs a few inches above the ankles, crushing the flesh of the right leg to the bone and snapping the bone in two, making a compound fracture. The left leg was also painfully bruised and other minor cuts and bruises were made on different parts of the body.

The young man was taken by his comrades to a yard nearby, from whence he was taken, on a cot, to his home, on the Avenue, where he was attended by Drs. Battle, Richardson and Beall. He is resting very well today, though it will most probably be many weeks before he will be able to get out again.

Mr. Porter is a most popular young man and his many friends, especially those of the fire department, deeply sympathize with him in his misfortune. The Hook and Ladder boys are deeply grieved that another accident should happen with the truck, especially that one like Mr. Porter was the victim.

FUNERAL OF CAPT. ALLEN.

Conducted at Home Moravian Church in Salem Today.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Winston, June 24.—The funeral of Capt. S. E. Allen was conducted at the Home Moravian church at 11 o'clock today by Revs. A. D. Thaeler and H. E. Rondthaler. A touching memoir was read and a timely sermon preached from the text: "I am now ready to be offered." A beautiful solo was sung by Miss Edna Hoge. The floral decorations were profuse and beautiful. The interment was made in the Salem graveyard with Masonic honors, the Masons and Knights of Honor attending in a body. The employees of all the hardware stores attended the funeral, besides a large number of friends. The pall bearers were: Jas. A. Gray, C. L. Fitch, F. G. Schaum, E. B. Jones, T. L. Farrow and E. A. Ebert. It is reported that Capt. Allen had $8,000 insurance on his life.

A colored excursion train arrived today about 10:30 from Mt. Airy with about 250 people on board.

Fire company No. 1 will begin practicing Friday evening for the tournament. The Salem Hose Company are practicing twice a week and some good runs are being made.

The Rough and Ready fire company will carry their hose wagon to the tournament. The Salem Reel Company will give a concert soon on the Salem square to raise funds to defray expenses to the tournament.

Chicken Thieves Again.

The chicken houses in the vicinity of the State Normal College have fallen a prey to the ravages of thieves. Last night Prof. Joyner, Mr. Coble and Mr. Duffy and Mrs. Barnes suffered the loss of a number of fine fowls. At Mrs. Davis' a chair was taken from the front porch and used as a means of trying to effect an entrance to the poultry. The backing of a dog at a nearby house probably drove the thieves away as they only succeeded in tearing away a curtain which hung on the outside of the glass.

MCKINLEY AND EXPANSION.

The Majority of the Ohio Voters Stand By the Administration.

THE FIGHT AGAINST SCHLEY

By the Navy Department Will Endanger the Republican Party's Success in Maryland.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, June 24.—Judge Nash, the republican candidate for governor of Ohio, who is in the city, is reported to be here for the purpose of enlisting the aid in his canvass of the administration. He has visited most of the executive departments since being in Washington, and has conferred frequently with Major Dick, the chairman of the Ohio republican committee. Judge Nash is hopeful of election, though since being in Washington he has declined to go into any particulars, or to indulge in any predictions as to the probable result in the Buckeye state, saying that it all depends upon the earnestness of the fight put up by the democracy. He is evidently somewhat worried over the alleged interview of Governor Bushnell, in which the governor made some very caustic comments upon Senator Hanna and himself. He says that his relations with Governor Bushnell have been pleasant, and he cannot believe that he was correctly reported. He has also refused to discuss the attitude of Senator Foraker, Mayor Jones, nor any other Ohio republican, but he says that on election day the republican party in the state will be found harmonious.

The republican candidate will, it is believed, as far as possible avoid local issues in his campaign, and also the late senatorial contest in which Senator Hanna figured, but he will try and make his canvass as far as possible upon national issues. He says that McKinley is as popular in the state as he was at the last presidential election, and that the majority of the voters of the state are with the administration upon his policy regarding the Philippine Islands. Whatever may be the result of the local contest in Ohio this fall, he believes that McKinley will get the state delegation to the next national convention, and will be renominated.

Representative Rixey, of Virginia, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Rixey has been one of the leading advocates of the election of United States senators by popular ballot. He stated that the fight for a change would in his opinion be kept up, though he was not certain that a candidate would be put in the field in opposition to Senator Martin. The census supervisor in Mr. Rixey's district will be a republican, and of course the enumeration will be of the same political faith as they will be appointed by the supervisor, therefore Mr. Rixey is not much interested in those appointments. It is understood, however, that the director of the census will allot him several clerks in his district.

Speaker Ryan, of the Virginia general assembly, is in the city for a few days. Mr. Ryan will be a candidate for re-election as speaker of the next assembly, and may have some opposition. Among those mentioned is Delegate Saunders.

Senator Wellington, of Maryland, is reported to have taken a hand in the matter of the treatment of Schley by the navy department, and he is said to have notified the navy department that unless it ceases its war upon Schley the party need not expect success in Maryland either this fall or next year. Senator Wellington is not on very good terms with the administration, having opposed its policy in connection with the Spanish war, and also the policy regarding the Philippines. Schley is from Maryland, and as the navy department will doubtless adhere to its policy, the democrats are encouraged to believe that the state will go democratic this fall.

Star service has been ordered in North Carolina as follows: Rose, by Waldo, Rainbow, and Mudlick, to Staley, eleven miles and back, three times a week, by a schedule of not to exceed four hours running time each way. From July 17th to June 30th, 1900.

Star service in North Carolina has been discontinued from Rose to Siler City. From July 18th, and from Mudlick to Staley, from July 16th.

THE CITY FATHERS.

Business Transacted at the Regular Meeting Last Night.

The board of aldermen held a regular meeting last night. Absent: Hunter, Merritt, Price, Walker and Wright. Mayor Taylor presided.

A petition from citizens asking for the purchase of a new fire engine was presented by Maj. L. M. Scott, who made some remarks urging the purchase of the engine. He was followed by Judge John Gray Bynum, who also urged that the board take favorable action on the petition. The petition was referred to the firemen's committee.

The following liquor dealers applied for license to retail liquor in the city: E. G. Newcomb, King & Oakley, R. P. Gorrell, John Barker and C. H. Coble. Under the rules the applications went over for two weeks.

J. Henry Phipps, chief of the fire department, filed a report in regard to the burning of the livery stable on the 28th of May.

Alderman Phillips offered a sanitary ordinance which was adopted. On motion of Alderman Phillips the board went into the election of a sanitary officer. Merrimon and Vuncannon were appointed tellers, after a deadlock of twenty-three ballots the board adjourned, without having elected the officer.

Miss Sallie Knight Dead.

At her home in Guilford College yesterday morning at 9 o'clock occurred the death of Miss Sallie Knight. The deceased was about 74 years old and had been an invalid for several years. She was a sister of Mrs. Mary E. Hiatt, of near Greensboro and a true, devoted Christian. She had many relatives in Greensboro and was well known here.

The funeral was conducted at Guilford College this afternoon at 3 o'clock and the remains interred in the cemetery there.

PERSECUTION OF SCHLEY.

A dispatch from Washington says there are already unpleasant suggestions of an analogy between the attitude of the American navy department toward Admiral Schley and the persecution of Dreyfus by the war department of France, and that when President McKinley returns next week representations will be made to him that Schley must be let alone very severely and at once, or the republican party will suffer. In our Washington letter today it is stated that the success of the party in power in Maryland is endangered by Secretary Long's ungracious course.

This untoward and unjust arraignment of one of the greatest men connected with the American-Spanish war, and the endeavor to brand him with the odium of cowardice, is eminently characteristic of the administration which seems to have a perverted policy upon every issue. To allow such a great, disgusting failure as Secretary Alger to be at the head of the war department, which he has repeatedly disgraced, and to allow such a scoundrel as Gen. Egan to go unhung, while Admiral Schley who, except Dewey, is undoubtedly the ablest and most courageous officer in the navy department, is shamefully overlooked, mistreated, insulted and persecuted, excites the indignation of the American people, but their surprise is in no wise aroused.

In his detestable course, Secretary Long is assisted by the foul-mouthed, malicious New York Sun, which has no more compunction of conscience in breaking down the character of a good and brave man than a boy feels in crushing a caterpillar.

In Barnwell county, South Carolina, there are returned for taxation dogs valued at $12,830, while the assessed value of sheep for the whole county is but $801. What else could be expected of such a state of affairs?

The above squib from the Raleigh Times Visitor only served to remind us of a scene we observed in a village one day not a thousand miles away. A farmer passed through town moving his effects from one plantation to another a short distance away. His wife walked behind, carrying in her arms an infant, while two or three children accompanied her, also a-foot; some of them swinging to her dress. In the wagon sat the "farmer" with his household goods, and nine flopped, half-starved hounds.

We cheerfully reproduce the following from the Charlotte Presbyterian Standard:

We commend to the N. Y. Independent, et al. one genus, whose hatred of the iniquitous South is a part of their religion, the reflection that the brutal prize fight that was "pulled off" in New York City recently under the protection of the police, could not have been fought in several of the southern states, barbarous as they are. It is a good thing for reform also to begin at home.

A representative of Russia has visited the plant of the American Ordnance Company and asked if his government could be furnished with 100 field batteries of six guns each, six and twelve pounders, quick fire guns, and 1,600 caissons and limbers. The value of the order would be about $6,000,000. The czar is preparing for peace.

Cholera Morbus Quickly Cured.

"During the hot weather last summer I had a severe attack of cholera morbus, necessitating my leaving my business," says Mr. C. A. Hare, of Hare Bros., Finesale, Ohio. "After taking two or three doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I was completely relieved and in a few hours was able to resume my work in the store. I sincerely recommend it to any one afflicted with stomach or bowel trouble. C. E. Holton, druggist."

Milwaukee wants the democratic national convention.

VISIT THE SICK

With a Smile of Sunshine, and Not With a Long Face.

Correspondence Telegram.

"So they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him; for they saw that his grief was very great." Job 2:13.

We have been talking no little on the character of Job, and one friend has stated that we must be wonderfully taken with this strange character, and his afflictions. He has called attention to the fact that in this world there are hundreds whose afflictions are greater than Job's, that his afflictions are called to suffer in this age. This is all true, perhaps; but this is not the phase of the question we look at. The point we wish to get stuck fast in the minds of our readers is, that notwithstanding these afflictions he never once lost his grip. The world is full of men and women terribly afflicted, but who have never learned the beautiful lesson of submission, and who, unfortunately, for themselves and for those with whom they come in contact persist in parading these afflictions as the subject of every conversation.

Then there is another class who feel called upon to visit the afflicted, and instead of coming with brightness and cheerful spirits, they enter the presence of the unfortunate with doleful faces and ditto words.

From this kind of friends good Lord deliver us. Job's friends were of this character. "Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that had come upon him, they came every one from his own place: Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite; for they had made an appointment together to come to mourn with him, and to comfort him." But nighty little comfort did Job obtain from his friends.

It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of one's friends under some circumstances. The devil would be more charitable. It is often the case that the mourning friends go in droves and strong is the patient who can live through their well intentioned ministrations.

"And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads towards heaven." "So they sat down upon the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him; for they saw that his grief was great."

Think of being compelled to sit for this length of time in the presence of such friends. It is a wonder that this exhibition of friendly interest did not kill Job. But there are men in the world who appear to be able to stand anything. Though Job did not lose opportunity to tell these fellows, "Miserable comforters are ye all."

The practical lesson to be drawn from the words of Scripture used is, that if we would comfort those who are called upon to mourn, let us not go into their presence as if we had come from a prison or the place where live the moles, and bats, and owls; but rather let us go as if we had just left the fields of sunshine, bright flowers and singing birds.

1,500 Girls Out On a Strike.

Richmond, Va., June 23.—The difficulty at the P. Whitlock branch of the American Tobacco Company, which began yesterday, has developed into a strike, and today more than three-fourths of the 1,500 girls employed there as bunch-breakers, rollers and packers, are out, with bright prospects, however, of a solution of the question satisfactory to all parties concerned.

Tomorrow morning a meeting of those having grievances will be held and at that time a statement will be made to the young ladies which will, it is hoped, end the strike. The trouble has grown out of differences respecting the rates of pay now prevailing and certain rules recently established.

A Mother Tells How She Saved Her Little Daughter's Life.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my daughter much suffering.—Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. P. Burdick, Liberty, B. I. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

Slobbs—"Typhoid gets the name of being very grasping. I wonder what makes him selfish?" Blobs—"Why, his business, of course. He's a fish daler."

W. M. Gallagher, of Bryan, Pa., says: "For forty years I have tried various cough medicines. One Minute Cough Cure is best of all." It relieves instantly and cures all throat and lung troubles, coughs, colds, croup, whooping-cough, la grippe and pneumonia. Howard Gardner.

ing success. The band uniforms were

Garred in the dispensary matter, yesterday served notice of appeal to the supreme court on the attorneys for the city and dispensary board.

A somewhat rovel piece of express root box containing two or three tiny alligators, shipped from Ormond, Fla.

Mrs. D. E. Osborn writes that Revs.

In Hudson's ad yesterday the price of spring chickens read "from 12 1-2 and was not noticed until the edition was printed. Hudson's prices are right.
